

No Clue.

- 1 What is the Dewey Decimal system & classification used to categorize e.g. 516 Geometry 516.3 Analytic Geometries 516.37 Metric differential geometries ?
- 2 While attempting to build a heart rhythm recording device, Wilson Greatbatch installed a wrong-sized resistor which resulted in it emitting regular electrical pulses. This led to the invention of which life saving device?
- 3 Which French word, meaning 'weekly' has its origins in the Greek word for 'seven'?
- 4 Which part of our body has 52 bones, more than 25% of the total in our body?
- 5 How do we better know the dish described as "a savoury ball made with minced meat, paneer, or vegetables" whose name is derived from the Persian word for 'to grind'?
- 6 The aurora borealis are the northern lights. What name is given to the southern lights?
- 7 The name of which Chinese dish actually means 'a mixture of leftovers' or 'assorted pieces'?

What is common to all these logos?

Why is this photo famous?

Watermark used by paper makers. What is the term we get from this?

The Puzzler

Find a three digit number which will remain the same when the below operations are performed:

- Divided by 3
- Order of the digits of the answer reversed
- 1 is subtracted from the above number

More “No Clue”

1 Identify the place (marked in the image)

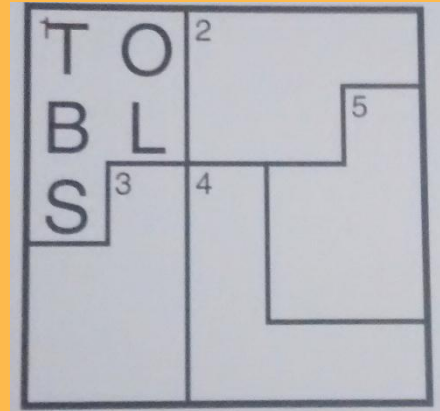

- 2 Which manmade structure stretches from the Pacific Ocean to the Gobi Desert?
3 Which seven-a-side ball game is played in a swimming pool?

Do you follow Kaun Banega Crorepati? You can find all the questions and answers from all the episodes of the previous two seasons here. If you like to play a KBC-like quiz game, go here to play from a selection of 100s of questions.

The Grid

Place the letters of the words below into the grid such that each horizontal row forms a proper word.

- 1 BOLTS
2 NAKED
3 AUNTS
4 PAIRS
5 ELAND

ANSWERS

No Clue: 1 Books in a library 2 Pacemaker 3 Hebdo 4 Feet (26 bones in each foot) 5 Kofta 6 Aurora Australis 7 Chopsuey

Snap IT: Logos of the metros in various cities in India, The profile of Gandhi used in the currency notes is from this photo, Foolscap

Puzzler: 741

More: 1 Gangnam 2 Great Wall of China 3 Water Polo

Grid: The resulting words formed are: Token, Blade, Stand, Aural, Snips